2018-19 Year In Review

California Peace Officers' Association (CPOA) is the source, voice and choice of its more than 35,000 members. From front line staff to executive level, CPOA strives to serve California law enforcement professionals by providing a focused resource for leadership development, and personal growth through hot topic trainings and career development workshops. The association also advocates on legislative and policy issues on behalf of all peace officers to support the mission of public safety in all our communities.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

We signed up our entire organization because CPOA brings value to everyone within our department. That's what makes CPOA so inclusive. It offers something different for all of our employees. From line-level to executive-level, CPOA is a one-stop shop for all of our employees and their respective needs for: training, leadership, networking and advocacy efforts."

- Marc Coopwood, Assistant Chief Beverly Hills Police Department

The last training I attended was ADVANCE this past summer. The training was relevant and informative dealing with a variety of issues important to our profession including leadership, resiliency, and community engagement. And one of the best part of the training is the opportunity to network with other law enforcement professionals."
