(POST reimbursements Reinstated)

"If you're looking to advance your career, this is absolutely the class to take to prepare you for your future."

- Vesha Francies - Secretary of State, Investigator

This exclusive class provides line-level officers the building blocks to grow into leadership positions through the belief that the most powerful way to grow as a leader is to become truly self-aware.

Each student will build a foundation for individual and organizational growth using curated readings and two nationally recognized self-assessment profiles integrated with group introspective activities. A promotion to sergeant workshop is also included.

CPOA invites your agency to nominate up to two officers to apply for this 80-hour POST approved course.

The DEADLINE to submit nomination applications is: September 18, 2020.
