California Peace Officers Association Elects 2025-2026 Board of Directors

Madera, CA – The California Peace Officers Association (CPOA) announced the election of its 2025–2026 Board of Directors during the annual business meeting held Tuesday, September 16, at the Madera County Sheriff's Office.

The newly elected officers are:

- President: Captain Chris Monahan, Piedmont Police Department
- First Vice President: Commander Kevin Huddle, Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Office
- Second Vice President: Sheriff Tyson Pogue, Madera County Sheriff's Office
- Third Vice President: Chief Todd Henry, Davis Police Department
- Treasurer: Assistant Chief David Rodriguez, Watsonville Police Department

"I am honored to serve as President of CPOA and look forward to working alongside an outstanding team of leaders dedicated to advancing the professionalism of California law enforcement," said Captain Monahan. "Together, we will strengthen our voice, expand training opportunities, and ensure that our members are equipped to meet the challenges of modern policing."

Sheriff Tyson Pogue, elected as Second Vice President, added, "Public safety doesn't stop at county lines. The California Peace Officers Association brings together leaders from across the state, so we can share ideas, strengthen training, and tackle challenges as one. When law enforcement agencies work together, every community in California is safer."

Looking ahead, the association is committed to providing innovative education, fostering collaboration among agencies, and advocating critical policy issues that impact public safety. "The future of CPOA lies in our ability to connect, educate, and lead," Monahan emphasized. "We will continue to be a trusted partner for law enforcement leaders as we adapt to new technologies, evolving community expectations, and the need for greater collaboration across jurisdictions."
