

Call for Speaker Proposals

2026 CPOA Spring Virtual Conference

April 28 – May 21, 2026 | Virtual Event

The California Peace Officers' Association is now accepting proposals for presenters at our 2026 Spring Virtual Conference, taking place April 28 through May 21, 2026. This 8-session virtual training event brings together professionals from across the law enforcement community to share knowledge, strengthen leadership, and support officer wellness and performance.

Conference Focus Areas

We invite dynamic presenters and subject matter experts to submit session proposals addressing topics relevant to today's law enforcement professionals, including but not limited to:

- Officer Wellness and Resilience
- Leadership and Supervision
- Critical Incident / Active Shooter Debriefs
- Community Engagement and Trust Building
- Emerging Trends and Technologies in Policing
- Professional Development and Training Best Practices

Session Format

- Each session is 2 hours in length, including time for Q&A.
- Sessions will be held Tuesdays from 10am-12pm, and Thursdays from 1pm-3pm.
- Sessions will be delivered virtually through a secure online platform.
- Presentations should be interactive, engaging, and designed to provide practical takeaways for law enforcement professionals.

Please note: Presentations must be educational in nature. Sales-oriented or promotional content will not be accepted. Vendors interested in sponsorship opportunities may contact Danielle Fayette at dfayette@cpoa.org for more information.

Submission Deadline

All proposals must be submitted by December 10, 2025.

Submission Instructions

Click here to: 2026 CPOA Virtual Conference

Selection Process

Proposals will be reviewed based on relevance, clarity, and the overall contribution to professional development in law enforcement. Selected speakers will be notified by December 29, 2025.